Hello Everyone

As we approach the 80th anniversary of VE Day, we continue to uncover powerful stories from Rudston's wartime past - tales of resilience, courage and the enduring spirit of our village. Passed down through generations, these memories remind us of the challenges faced and the sacrifices made by those who lived through such turbulent times.

This month, we share two poignant glimpses into how global conflict touched local lives. The first is a personal reflection from the Drewery family, recalling their relatives' experience as evacuees in Rudston during World War II - an account that highlights the village as a place of safety and community in a time of great uncertainty. The second story recounts the tragic train crash at Burton Agnes in 1947, involving German prisoners of war and British soldiers. It stands as a solemn reminder of the human cost of war, even after peace had officially returned.

By preserving and sharing these stories, we keep history alive - not only to honour the past, but to inspire future generations with the values of unity, compassion and remembrance.

To mark this historic occasion, a lamp lighting ceremony will take place at the Bosville Arms on Thursday 8th May at 9.30pm.

Then, on Saturday 10th May, all are warmly invited to the Village Hall for an afternoon of VE Day celebrations - a chance for the community to come together, reflect and remember.

Warm regards,

Heather, Becky & Paula

Dear Friends

A word from Ian Fletcher (Licenced Lay Minister/Reader) at All Saints, Rudston

For many people the three important days that they recognise in the Christian calendar are Christmas Day, Easter Day and Pentecost Sunday. Of these three only Christmas Day has a fixed date but Easter and Pentecost are linked together in that Pentecost, known to some as Whit Sunday and previous to that as White Sunday, always follows 50 days after Easter.

The result of a late Easter, as this year, is that Pentecost Sunday falls into June leaving us with Ascension Day as the major traditional event in May. Ascension Day tends, in this country, to be a date properly observed by the more enthusiastic Christians but in other countries it is a very important date in both the Christian, and the local calendar. Ascension Day falls 40 days after Easter which means it is always properly observed on a Thursday, rather than on a Sunday, and this year it is observed on May 29th.

Each Tuesday at 10.30am, in church, at All Saints, Kilham, come and join in for a time of prayer and discussion over a cuppa and biscuits. All welcome.

We will continue to have a ‘Zoom’ service on the first and third Sundays of the month at 11am and weekly each Wednesday at 10am (contact revglynowen@btinternet.com for log-in details).

On Ascension Day Christians reflect on the risen Jesus who after his resurrection, which we celebrated on Easter Sunday, ascends into heaven to be with his father. Ascension marks the beginning of the period of the early disciples then awaiting the coming of the Holy Spirit whose coming we celebrate ten days later at Pentecost, which this year is on June 8th.

As Christians and as individuals, Easter fills us with the hope that Jesus taught us to have. The coming Pentecost confirms that hope in the giving of the Holy Spirit. The role of the Church is to share that hope with you all.

We invite you all during this season to reflect on how you view the presence of your local Church and to let us know what you think we could do to better serve your needs, and to give you hope?

RUDSTON NEWS AND EVENTS

ALL SAINTS CHURCH, RUDSTON, SOCIAL COMMITTEE

As yet there are no fundraising events planned for this year but watch this space!!

We hope you visited Church over Easter Week to appreciate the Easter decorations which brighten up the Church to celebrate Easter after the bare weeks of Lent. Thanks to all who helped.

Many visitors come to look in our Church, to marvel at the Monolith and to read the historical information inside on the North wall. The visitor's book is evidence of their appreciation and we are grateful for their donations either in the wall box or on the card machine which help to support the running of Rudston Church which belongs to us all.

RUDSTON VILLAGE HALL

Thursday 3rd April was bingo night. A good night 😊. Thank you to everyone who supported and helped out. Our next bingo night is Thursday 1st May.

Saturday 22nd March was a fundraising evening for Breast Cancer Now. A great, well attended evening of laser shooting and wearing something pink in support. The evening started having a practise go, then teams were made and the heats began. The enthusiasm and competitive spirit was apparent by all the shouting!!

The raffle made good money for the cause with so many prizes kindly donated. A bar fuelled competitors and the grand final took place.

Congratulations to all winners. The medal presentation ended a great evening. Thanks to everyone who came and Teresa and Ann M for organising it.

RUDSTON W.I.

Members enjoyed guessing "what is it and what is it used for" when Marion Gamble brought her antique quiz to the April meeting. The competition - A Family Heirloom - was won by Claire Sutton, 2nd Shirley Sutton and 3rd June Sellers. Members decided to go to Manor Court for lunch on Wednesday 16th April. They had enjoyed lunch out at Stuart's in Driffeld in March.

June Sellers and Linda Coope attended the Federation AGM and Spring Council Meeting at the Mercure Hotel in Willerby. Shirley Harland shared a cake to celebrate her 90th birthday and we sang happy birthday. Next month's meeting is at 7pm on Tuesday May 6th when David Mooney will give a talk and slide show entitled "Monuments and Memories". David is a stone mason and also one of the Lord Feoffees. Five members are going to the group lunch now at the Old Star Kilham, on Friday 25th April.

We are trying to recruit new members and April was the start of the subscription year at £51. A portion of this goes to the National and County Federation but the majority to our WI which we need to pay for speakers. Each month we have a £1 raffle which goes towards our annual outing.

We changed our summer meetings to 7pm to accommodate anyone working in the daytime and hope they will come as a guest to see how we operate. Guests are welcome at any time and pay a fee of £3. We have a guest speaker for about 45 minutes, then break for free refreshments and a chat and then have a short business meeting for no more than 15 minutes. A total of 1hr 45 minutes usually.

We are a small but friendly group of ladies ranging from 40 to 90 at present but the WI is open to all over 18. The more members we have the better speakers we can afford.

Please consider coming along to Rudston WI - you will be very welcome.

The Bosville Arms - 01262 321645

JOIN US FOR A SPECIAL VE DAY LAMP LIGHTING:

 Thursday 8th May 2025

 9:30 PM

 Bosville Arms

Following the incredible and moving D-Day lamp lighting, we invite you to join us once again as we come together to mark VE Day with a special lamp lighting ceremony at 9.30pm on Thursday 8th May.

Let's honour the sacrifices of the past, remember those who served and celebrate the peace they fought for.

 The Bosville Arms will be open - come along, share stories and raise a glass to our heroes.

All are welcome - let's keep history alive in our community.

RUDSTON YOUTH CLUB

Duck, Duck... JACKPOT!

Just as the newsletter was going to print, the quacking news landed that The Rudston Duck Race was a splashing success, raising a truly amazing £1,300 for the Youth Club!

We still can't believe how generous the community were. From waddling supporters to heroic ducks floating valiantly downstream, some sideways, some backwards, some taking on water, the afternoon was full of anticipation & laughter, and only a tiny bit of soggy sock syndrome.

A round of applause to our champion ducks, who paddled their way to glory.

The weather certainly wasn't going to dampen our spirits, the turnout from the village was absolutely brilliant, and the generosity and support from everyone who came was enough to warm even the soggiest welly boots.

Thank You, Thank You, THANK YOU!

To our generous sponsors, tireless volunteers, and everyone who bought a duck, tried their luck on the tombola, or just popped by for a cuppa and cake put on by the Village Hall, you're the reason Rudston Youth Club can keep doing what we do.

Earlier this month, we put some of our funds raised to excellent use, bouncing our way to happiness at Jump Inc in Beverley. Around 25 members joined us for an afternoon of flips, flops, and epic trampoline fun with some much-deserved pizza and pop to finish.

Big shout out to our amazing young people - you were polite, kind, and a joy to be around. Our next meeting is May 13th 6.30pm -8pm at the Village Hall.

COMMEMORATING VE-DAY: RUDSTON'S WARTIME STORIES

This May, as we mark the anniversary of VE-Day, we pause to remember the bravery and sacrifice of those who served during World War II. Here in Rudston, the echoes of history are closer than we might think. Our village witnessed events and shared experiences that shaped the lives of those who lived through those challenging times.

This month, we share two poignant glimpses into the impact of war on our region. The first is a personal reflection from the Drewery family, recalling their relatives' time as evacuees in Rudston during World War II - a story that highlights the village's role as a place of refuge in uncertain times. The second recounts the tragic Burton Agnes train crash of 1947, involving German prisoners of war and British soldiers, a sobering reminder of the lingering consequences of conflict even after the fighting had ended. Both stories offer a moving perspective on how global events touched local lives.

We hope these stories not only commemorate the past but also inspire future generations to reflect on the courage and unity shown during those pivotal days.

EVACUEES

During World War II, many children were evacuated from Hull to rural villages like Rudston for safety. My aunt, Margaret Drewery, and her mother were among those evacuated, finding refuge in Rudston. My aunt's mother initially taught at the local school and, as we understand, lived with the schoolmaster. Later, they moved into one of the newly built cottages on South Side Lane, known as Nightingale Row. At the end of the war, they returned to Hull.

Imagine our surprise when, years later, we moved to Rudston and discovered that our relatives had once lived in the very same village!

Heather, Paul and Brenda Drewery

Burton Agnes Train Crash

On 17 September 1947, a tragic accident occurred at the Burton Agnes level crossing near Bridlington, East Yorkshire. An army lorry transporting German prisoners of war (POWs) collided with a passenger train travelling from Hull to Bridlington. The collision resulted in the immediate deaths of two British non-commissioned officers and seven German POWs, with three additional POWs succumbing to their injuries later in the hospital.

The incident transpired when the lorry, driven by an unauthorized and reportedly inexperienced driver, Staff Sergeant James Joseph Wadey, crashed through the level crossing gates into the path of the oncoming train, which was travelling at approximately 60 mph and was not scheduled to stop at Burton Agnes. The impact was devastating, leading to significant casualties among the occupants of the lorry.

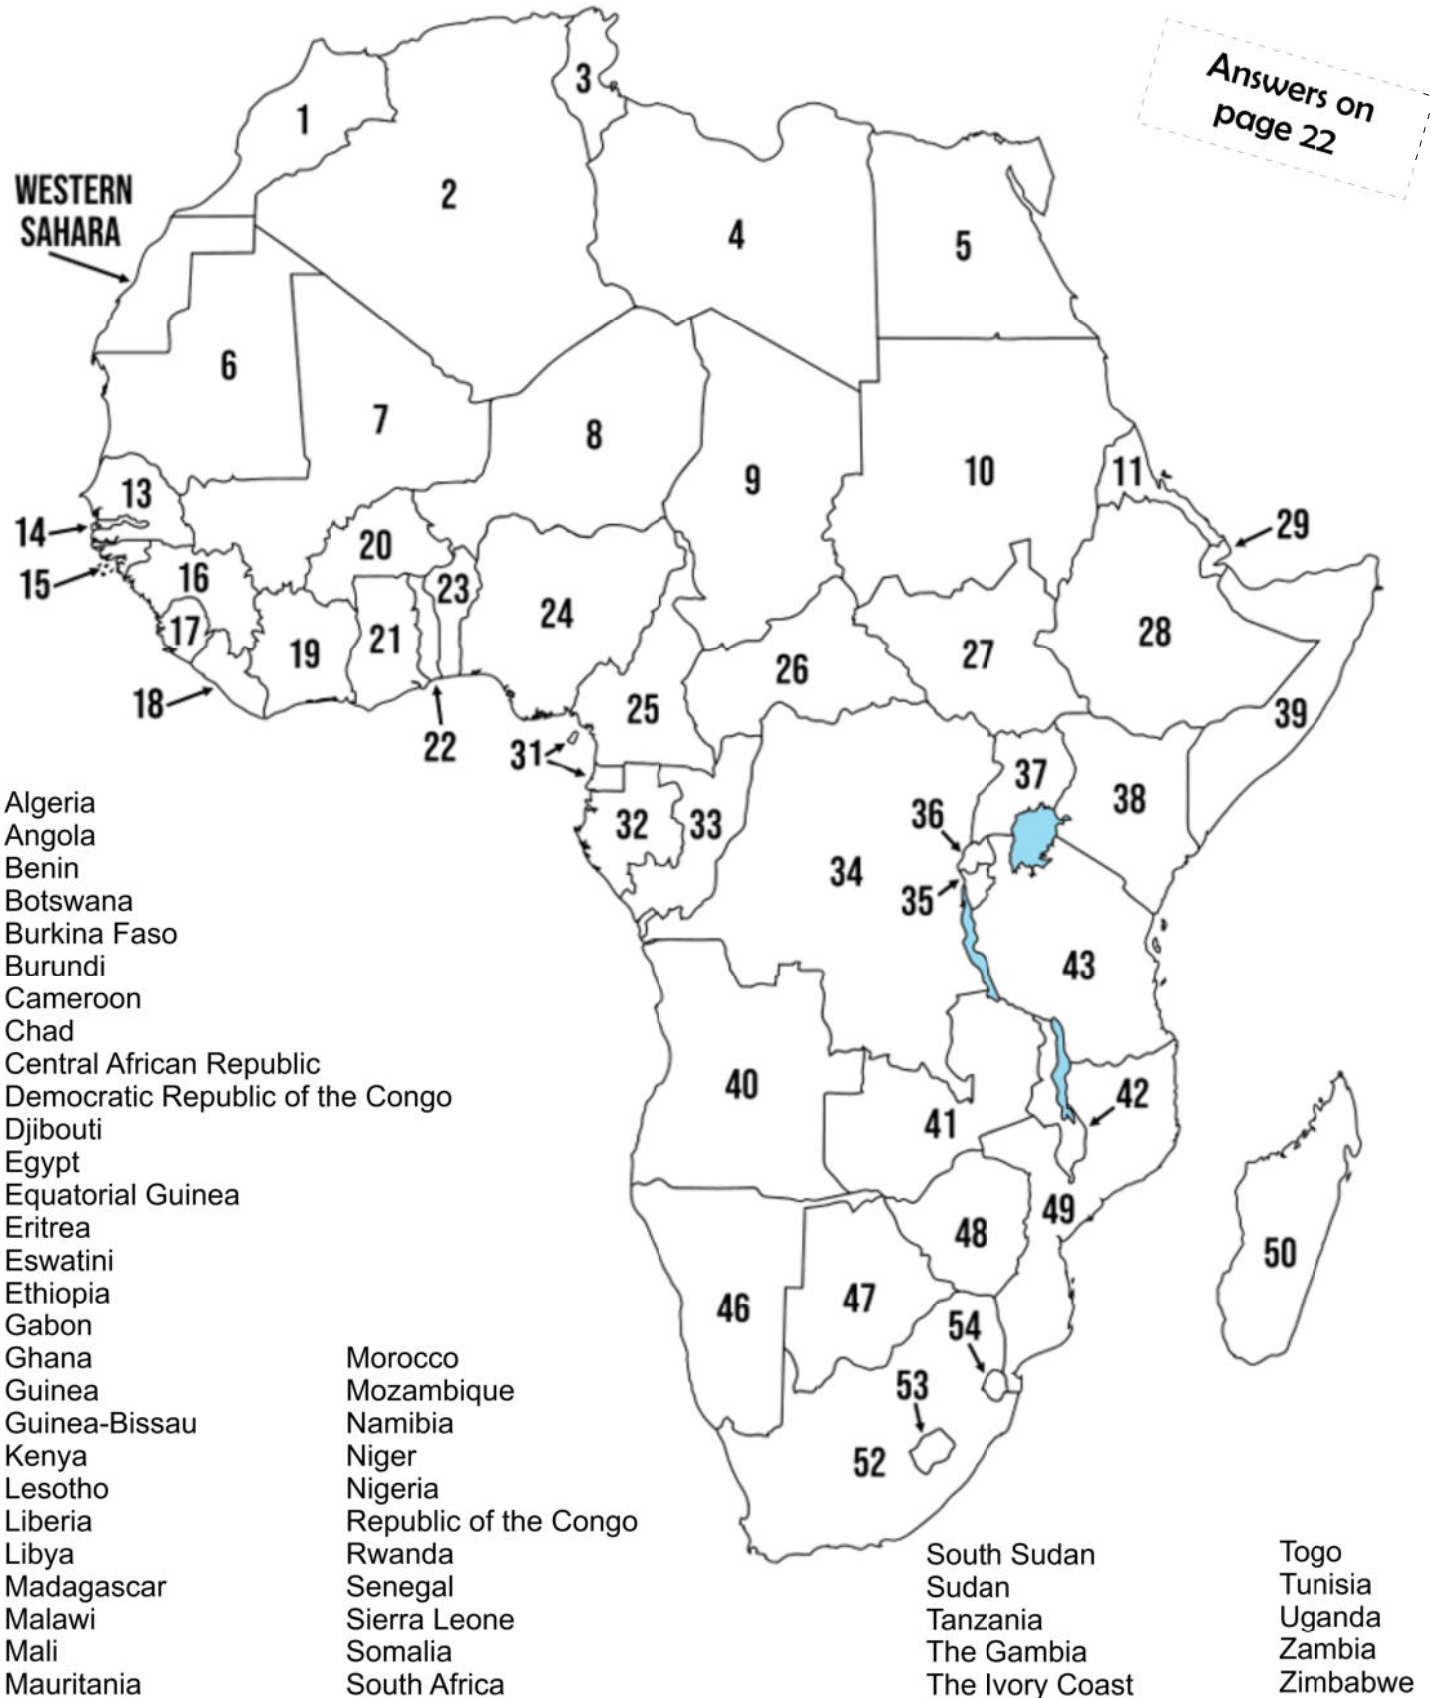

In the aftermath, a memorial plaque was installed to honour those who lost their lives in this tragedy. The plaque commemorates Staff Sergeant Wadey, Sergeant Ronald Montague Cramer and the ten German POWs who perished in the collision. It also acknowledges all Axis Power POWs who contributed to agricultural work in the area during that period.

For those interested in a more comprehensive account of this incident, Richard M Jones authored a book titled "The Burton Agnes Disaster: The Forgotten Wartime Rail Tragedy", which delves into the details and aftermath of the collision.

This tragic event serves as a sombre reminder of the perils associated with railway crossings and the human cost of errors during such operations.

QUIZ

We thought this month's quiz could test your knowledge of Africa. Below is a map with all the different countries outlined and numbered. All you have to do is guess which country belongs where. Note - some countries have been omitted due to being outlying islands.

Rudston's Recipes

SAMPHIRE AND CRAB SALAD

Ingredients

- 2 slices of sourdough bread
- 1½ tbsp rapeseed oil
- 180g samphire
- 1 lemon, juiced
- 1 tbsp crème fraiche
- 1 crab, brown and white meat separated
(about 60g of each)
- 1 tbsp chopped dill (optional)
- 100g watercress

Method

- Heat the oven to 220°C/200°C fan/gas mark 7. Tear the bread into rough chunks and put in a bowl with ½ tbsp rapeseed oil and a little seasoning. Toss well, then tip onto a baking tray. Bake for 8-10 mins until golden. Set aside.
- Bring a large pan of water to the boil and cook the samphire for 3 mins before draining and plunging into ice-cold water. Leave to cool for a few minutes before draining.
- To make the dressing, combine the lemon juice, crème fraiche, remaining 1 tbsp rapeseed oil, the brown crabmeat and dill, if using, in a small bowl. Season, mix to evenly combine and set aside.
- Mix the watercress and drained samphire together in a large bowl, drizzle over the dressing and toss well to coat. Serve on a platter or divide between plates, then top with the white crabmeat and croutons.

ETON MESS SCONES

Ingredients

400g self-raising flour, plus extra for dusting
¼ tsp salt
1 tsp baking powder
100g butter, cut into cubes
3 tbsp caster sugar, plus extra for sprinkling
200ml buttermilk
1 tsp vanilla extract
5 tbsp milk, plus extra for brushing
good handful small strawberries, halved small jar good strawberry jam
2 meringue nests, crumbled into chunks
200ml tub clotted cream

Method

- Heat oven to 220°C/200°C fan/gas mark 7. Mix the flour, salt and baking powder together in a large bowl. Rub in the butter or whizz the lot in a food processor to fine crumbs, then stir in the sugar.
- Warm the buttermilk, vanilla and milk to hand temperature, then quickly stir it into the flour mixture with a knife. Using your hands, bring the dough together, being careful not to overwork the mix.
- Turn dough out onto a lightly floured work surface and pat out to a 2.5cm thick round. Stamp out 12 x 5cm rounds, dusting the cutter with flour as you stamp – you'll need to re-pat trimmings to make 12. Put the rounds onto floured baking sheets, brush the tops with milk and sprinkle with a little more sugar. Bake for 12-15 mins until golden.
- To serve, lightly mash the strawberries with the jam and fold the meringues into the clotted cream. Dollop some strawberry mixture onto each split scone and top with a dollop of meringue cream.

Gardening Corner by Dick Robinson - First published in May 2015

This will be our last visit to Dick Robinson's gardening corner. We hope his words and advice have proved useful and perhaps some of you have enjoyed a trip down memory lane.

The word "Strawberries" reminds me of Wimbledon, and sunshine. The big advantage of strawberries is that they need small spaces to grow, they give quick returns compared with other soft fruits. If given a good soil and a healthy variety, crops can be gathered within 9 months of planting.

Runners, put in early in September, should give excellent crops the following summer, if planted after mid-October the crop is likely to be small. Commercial fruit growers have made great changes over the last 10 years, now many home gardeners have followed. It is now possible to have fresh strawberries from late this month to the end of September or even early October. All this is due to the use of the so called "Everbearing" varieties and the use of cold stored runners. Growing on raised beds under glass or in pots or growbags or under plastic structures all helps. Suitable varieties are GARIGUETTE for late May cropping, SONATA to follow for later and FINESSE for September.

It was always policy in the old estate gardens to put up runners in the late autumn, feed well and grow them on benches in the vineries to crop early the next spring, the flowers being hand pollinated to ensure a crop.

This is the time to get at small weed seedlings, chickweed, groundsel and those stinging nettles that seem to appear every year. The Dutch Hoe (Skim to the Easy Riding gardener) is the tool. Keep it going throughout the summer.

Summer flowering bulbs and tubers can be planted now along with any potatoes still sprouting. Seed of dwarf and runner beans can go in now, but wait till the end of May before planting out any pot grown plants off the bean family.

For next year's biennial flowers sow now outside, wallflowers, polyanthus, hollyhocks etc. also any salads to keep up supply. Finally, you can sow my favourite of all winter vegetables the hardy Swede Turnip.
