Editor's Letter

Dear Readers

 Autumn is here!

As the leaves begin to turn and the evenings draw in, October is a lovely reminder of the changing seasons and the wonderful community we have here in Rudston.

September has been a busy month, and there is plenty to look forward to in October. From our Harvest Festival and Harvest Supper to live music, Bingo, Quiz Night and the many regular activities at the Village Hall and Bosville Arms, there really is something for everyone. Look at this month's newsletter and put some dates in your diary.

One of the things that makes Rudston such a special place is the number of groups and organisations that continue to bring people together. But many of them rely on new members and volunteers to keep going. This month, we would particularly like to highlight Rudston WI, which is facing an important milestone.

Rudston WI has been part of village life for 97 years, and the members are keen to make sure it reaches its centenary and continues well beyond it. With only a small number of members at present, they are appealing to women in Rudston and the surrounding villages to come along, have a look and see what the WI has to offer.

Meetings take place on the first Tuesday of each month at 2pm in Rudston Village Hall, and they can include speakers, demonstrations, outings, lunch trips - and, of course, tea, cake and plenty of opportunity for a chat! You don't have to commit to becoming a member straight away; visitors are very welcome to come along and see what it's all about. At just £3 per meeting, including refreshments, it's a lovely opportunity to meet new people and perhaps make some new friends.

Could you help Rudston WI reach its 100th birthday? Even if you've never considered joining the WI before, why not give it a try? The future of this long-standing village organisation could depend on a few new faces.

As always, thank you to everyone who contributes articles, photographs, information and ideas to the newsletter. It is your contributions that make each edition a true reflection of village life.

We hope you enjoy this month's newsletter and, wherever possible, get out and enjoy all that Rudston has to offer this autumn.

Dear friends,

It is now Autumn, a season of change from the scorching heat of summer to milder weather and the change to Autumn colours as the leaves change from green to brown. It is a beautiful time of year, and it is an especially important one for our farming communities as we celebrate with them the successful gathering of the harvest.

This year it has come early due to the warm weather ripening the crops sooner than normal, or so I'm told! However, we are grateful that, in the words of that well known harvest hymn, all has been safely gathered in. Please look out for the harvest service and come and join in this special celebration.

It is also a time when our children go back to school or even go away to higher education, although by the time you read this, they will have been back for a few weeks.

Finally, can I thank everyone who has welcomed me in as the new vicar after 4 years of being the curate, it is still a joy to serve you all.

Many blessings to you all

Revd Steve

ALL SAINTS CHURCH, RUDSTON, SOCIAL COMMITTEE

We hope you will join us in Church for our Annual Harvest Festival on Friday 2nd October at 6.30pm. This is one of our most popular and main festivals especially as we live in a village surrounded by farm land and not far from the sea. It is our chance to come together and celebrate a good harvest safely gathered in from land, sea and gardens and sing some of our favourite harvest hymns.

We will be decorating Church on Friday 2nd October from 9.30am. The social committee will be serving fruit pies and cream and hot drinks in Church after the service so you can count this as your pudding if you've had your tea.

We look forward to seeing you all then to fill the Church as of "yore".

RUDSTON W.I.

On Tuesday 1st September members and friends met at the Spirit of Yorkshire Cafe at Hunmanby for lunch.

The monthly meeting was changed to Tuesday 15th September when members and guests met with the immediate past chairman of the East Yorkshire WI Federation for advice and a discussion on the "Future of Rudston WI". Rudston WI has now been in existence for 97 years and we would like to increase the membership to carry on as a successful WI. We know there are potential members in Rudston and the surrounding villages who would benefit from joining us to enjoy social time together and meeting new friends during a couple of hours at the WI on the first Tuesday of each month at 2pm in Rudston Village Hall or on a visit somewhere.

Christine reassured us that we are not the only WI with only 7 members and that we have enough funds to keep going at least until we reach 100 years. Membership fluctuates and many new WI's are being set up successfully nationwide. By being a member you not only have a say in running the WI as you want to but also to belong to a County Federation (which offers more than the individual WI) and the National WI which often is approached for opinions on current national issues.

At our meetings we may have a speaker, a demonstration or go on a visit. It always includes a cup of tea, cake and a chat and a short business meeting (usually to discuss where we'd like to go out for lunch). Please come along and visit us at any meeting to see how we operate. We charge £3 a time which includes refreshments. Let's keep the WI alive in Rudston for a good few years in the future.

Our next meeting is on Tuesday 6th October in Rudston Village Hall at 2pm. It is our AGM which will be over very quickly giving plenty of time for socialising.

We plan to go out for lunch to the Belvedere Golf Club on Tuesday 20th October at 12 noon (providing they have availability).

All members and friends are welcome. Please contact President Janet Brannan.

For more information or a lift to WI meetings contact June Sellers (secretary) on 01262 420 237, or President Janet Brannan on 07790 417 771.

All the Elements of a Government

A major research institution has announced the discovery of the heaviest element yet known to science. It has been named "Governmentium".

This new element has 1 neutron, 12 assistant neutrons, 75 deputy neutrons and 11 assistant deputy neutrons giving it a huge atomic mass. These particles are held together by forces called morons, which are surrounded by vast quantities of lepton like particles known as peons.

Since Governmentium has no electrons, it is inert. However it can be detected, because it impedes every action with which it comes into contact with.

A minute amount of Governmentium causes a reaction to take four days to complete, which it would normally take less than a second. Governmentium has a normal half-life of five years.

It does not decay, but instead undergoes a reorganisation in which a portion of the assistant neutrons change places. In fact Governmentium's mass will actually increase over time, since each reorganisation will cause more morons to become neutrons, forming isodopes.

This characteristic of "moron promotion" leads scientists to believe that Governmentium is formed whenever morons reach a certain quantity of concentration. This hypothetical quantity is called "critical morass". When catalysed with money, Governmentium becomes Administratium, an element which radiates just as much energy as Governmentium, since half as many Peons, but twice as many morons.

RUDSTON VILLAGE SHOW

Thanks to everyone who took part in the village show, we had a great turnout, with a lot of new people who joined in. Not so many vegetables but probably due to the weather.

Thank you to everyone who helped at the show and to everyone who entered. Thanks too for the donations of cash, cakes etc - we made £198.50. It was really nice to see people afterwards just chatting and relaxing.

OCTOBER WILDLIFE & GARDENING TIPS

October brings crisp mornings, colourful leaves and the unmistakable signs of autumn. As the days get shorter, our gardens become important refuges for wildlife preparing for the colder months ahead.

In the garden

- Plant spring bulbs such as daffodils, tulips, crocuses and hyacinths. Planting now will give them time to establish before winter.
- Clear fallen leaves from lawns and paths, but don't be too tidy! Piles of leaves make excellent shelter for insects, frogs and hedgehogs. Collect leaves into a simple leaf-mould pile where possible.
- Bring tender plants indoors or protect them from frost with fleece or by moving them to a sheltered spot.
- Plant trees, shrubs and hedging while the ground is still relatively warm and moist - autumn is an ideal time for planting.
- Harvest pumpkins and squash before the first hard frosts and store them somewhere cool and dry.
- Give your lawn some attention by raking out moss and thatch and aerating compacted areas to help it recover after the summer.

Helping our wildlife

- Check bonfires before lighting them. Hedgehogs often see piles of garden waste as a perfect place to shelter. If possible, build your bonfire on the day you plan to light it and check carefully with a torch beforehand.
- Leave some fallen leaves and natural debris in quiet corners of the garden. They provide valuable homes for insects and other small creatures.
- Keep bird feeders well stocked with seeds and nuts, and make sure birds have access to clean, fresh water.
- Leave seed heads on plants such as sunflowers and teasels - they provide a natural food source for birds and add winter interest to the garden.
- Avoid cutting back everything too soon. Hollow stems and dead foliage can provide shelter for overwintering insects.
- Keep an eye out for hedgehogs, bats and migrating birds as autumn progresses. If you have a hedgehog visiting your garden, make sure there are gaps in fences to allow it to move between gardens.

 A garden doesn't need to be perfectly tidy to be wildlife-friendly. This autumn, consider leaving a little corner to grow wild, allowing leaves to gather and keeping seed heads standing. These small changes can provide food and shelter for wildlife throughout the colder months - and you'll be rewarded with plenty of autumn colour and interest in the garden.

Rudston's Recipes

As the evenings draw in, there's nothing better than a bowl of homemade soup. This recipe makes the most of October's pumpkins and is delicious served with crusty bread. Serves 4. Preparation: 15 mins, Cooking: 45 mins

ROASTED PUMPKIN, RED PEPPER & CHILLI SOUP

Ingredients

- 1 small pumpkin or 1 medium butternut squash, peeled & cubed
- 2 red peppers, deseeded and chopped
- 1 large onion, roughly chopped
- 3 cloves garlic, unpeeled
- 1 tbsp olive oil
- 1 tsp smoked paprika
- ½ tsp chilli flakes (or more, to taste)
- 750ml vegetable stock
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper
- A splash of double cream or crème fraîche, to serve (optional)
- Pumpkin seeds, to serve (optional)

Method

- Preheat the oven to 200°C / 180°C fan / Gas Mark 6
- Place the pumpkin, red peppers, onion and garlic on a large roasting tray
- Drizzle with olive oil and sprinkle over the smoked paprika and chilli flakes. Season with salt and pepper, then toss everything together
- Roast for 30-35 minutes, turning once, until the vegetables are soft and slightly caramelised
- Remove the roasted garlic from its skins and add everything to a large saucepan
- Pour in the vegetable stock and bring to a gentle simmer for 10 minutes
- Blend until smooth using a stick blender or food processor. Add a little extra stock if the soup is too thick
- Taste and adjust the seasoning
- Serve hot with a swirl of cream or crème fraîche and a sprinkling of toasted pumpkin seeds.

Serving suggestion: Delicious with warm, crusty bread or homemade cheese scones.

LITTLE CHEFS SPOOKY HALLOWEEN RICE KRISPIE BATS

These fun little Halloween treats are perfect for children to make and decorate. You could also make pumpkins, ghosts or monsters using the same idea!

Little helpers can: measure the ingredients, mix the fruit, rub the butter into the flour and sprinkle the crumble over the top

Ingredients

40g butter
100g marshmallows
100g Rice Krispies
100g chocolate (milk or dark)
Edible eyes or white icing for decorating

Method

- Ask a grown-up to melt the butter in a large saucepan over a low heat.
- Add the marshmallows and stir until they have melted and the mixture is smooth.
- Take the pan off the heat and carefully stir in the Rice Krispies until they are all coated.
- Tip the mixture into a lined baking tin and gently press it down. Leave it to cool and set.
- Once set, use a bat-shaped cutter to cut out your spooky bats. If you don't have one, you could cut out simple shapes with a knife - grown-up help needed!
- Melt the chocolate (ask a grown-up to help) and spread or drizzle it over the bats.
- Add edible eyes or use a little white icing to make spooky faces.
- Leave them to set - then enjoy your creepy creations! 🧛

 Little Chef's Tip: Don't worry if your bats aren't perfect - Halloween is all about being spooky!

ANSWERS TO PUZZLES 2-4

2. The value of the letter in the bottom left square is subtracted from the value of the letter in the top left square, and the value of the letter in the bottom right square is subtracted from the value of the letter in the top right square, to give the value of the letter in the central square. Thus the missing value is 1, so the missing letter is A.
