Editor's Letter

Dear Everyone,

At the time of writing, we are well into a really cold spell, after the somewhat balmy weather which we experienced in November. It is now quite seasonal. I expect everyone is busy with Christmas preparations and the children becoming quite excited. It has been a busy month for those residents who enjoy being involved in village activities. The Hallowe'en event at the Bosville Arms was brilliant. The children were entertained by a magician. He came around the pub afterwards to enthrall those youngsters who thought that they were too old to sit with the children and watch the magic show (our 3 grandsons) with rope tricks. We were then entertained by a very talented rock group. The travelling lunch was a great success, despite different numbers of people turning up at strange times! Nick and I served the soup course and as it was the first day that I was not using a crutch, following my injury, I must have resembled "Mrs. Overall" as I tottered around with bowls of soup. Those of you who are old enough to remember the programme, it was called "Acorn Antiques". A grand total of £577 was raised, including the raffle which took £105. This is for the Village Hall funds.

On November 7th, villagers were treated to a fantastic display of fireworks at the pub. Special thanks to Jason, Charlie, Midge and Pubby. The fund raiser, at the Bosville Arms, in aid of Marie Curie was a very busy evening. There was a myriad of bright and glittering stalls, with lots of customers spending.

The Rudston Bake Off at the Village Hall, promises to be a really good event.

I would like to wish all the residents of Rudston a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Dear Friends

By the time you read this the world will be getting ready for Christmas. I love the build up, the season of Advent. It's a season of expectation and preparation as the Church looks forward to the birth of Christ. Advent falls at the darkest time of the year and the natural symbols of darkness and light work so powerfully through Advent and Christmas. I still get excited at the progressive lighting of the candles on the Advent wreath in church each Sunday!

Something to help us all get ready for Jesus' coming will be the Nativity and Carol service on Sunday 20th. Christmas Eve will be a big night for us too. At 5pm there will be our 'Crib-tingle' service at Kilham. It will be a mixture of dressing the crib with Christmas characters and creatures and giving everyone a Christingle. (more light and darkness!). If you want to dress up as a nativity character that would be great (angels, kings, shepherds, donkeys etc all welcome). When all the children are fast asleep there will be our midnight Holy Communion at Kilham too. It's past my bedtime but I love it and find that service one of the most special of the year. On Christmas day at Rudston we'll have the finale of our Christmas at 9.30am and reminder of the central Christian truth of; 'the word becoming flesh and dwelling among us' (John 1.14).

Have a very merry and blessed Christmas, Glyn

Bob Evans

Kath would like to sincerely thank everyone for their support, kind words of sympathy, thoughtful letters and cards, following the passing away of her beloved husband, Bob on October 28th.

I would like to add my condolences to Kath, following the passing away of her husband, Bob .

I sat in the row behind Bob in the U3A orchestra for many years. He was such a talented musician and enhanced enormously the woodwind section ,playing the soprano sax. For the last few years Bob was also the leader of the U3A Jazz Group. This was not without its challenges! Bob worked hard to organise music to suit all tastes. He remained a gentleman at all times and will be remembered not only for his talent but also his gentle sense of humour.

Sue

Many thanks to all who supported our Halloween Fundraiser. The young people all had a great time and we were thrilled to raise £50.

YOUTH GROUP

We are looking forward to our next event which is Christmas Carol Singing on a horse drawn sleigh. This will be on Sunday 13th December. We hope to see you then!

Christmas Shoebox Appeal

Thank you to everyone who supported this wonderful appeal. Many of you do each year and every donation is so very much appreciated.

Wishing you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy 2016

On November 2nd 2015, the WI meeting was attended by 22 members, at Rudston Village Hall. Jenny Herring welcomed everyone and introduced the speaker, Jeanette Cawkell.

Jeanette had organised for us all to make a Christmas decoration out of material, which we all enjoyed doing with plenty of laughs. Our competition was a Santa Claus, which was judged by Jeanette. 1st prize was won by Pat Stephenson, second Val Walker and 3rd Di White. The raffle was won by Pat Stephenson. Congratulations to you all.

At the meeting we discussed any feedback from our group rally, which we hosted and everyone agreed that it was a successful event. Our Luncheon Club at Manor Court was well attended and we had an excellent meal and a good chat.

Our next meeting is our Christmas Party which is on Tuesday 1st December, followed by our Christmas lunch at the Trout at Wansford on 15th December.

If you are interested in joining, or would like to come along as a visitor, you would be made very welcome. Our list of speakers for next year will be available in January, so come along if any are of interest to you.

For further details, please contact Jenny Herring on 01262 420720

VILLAGE HALL

COFFEE SHOP

The coffee shop is open on a Thursday morning.

The Marie Curie fund raiser at the Bosville Arms on November 19th, raised just over £500. Thanks to everyone who donated and to those who attended the Christmas Fayre. A special thanks to Jason, at the Bosville, Teresa Blofeld and Pat Warcup.

A special thanks has been expressed to the parish council, for replacing the bridle path notices . Some villagers have asked me to point out that bridle paths are not for motorised vehicles. Anyone riding such, is churning up the path, but more importantly represents a real danger to walkers and horses

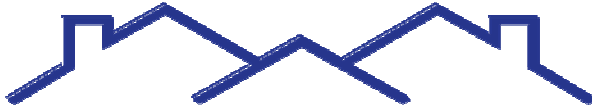

I have just been informed by Phillip Crossland that Rudston War Memorial has been accepted as a "Building of special architectural or historic interest" and now is now officially "Listed, grade II"

Rudston Village Hall Committee Meeting

The meeting was held on November 10th and many issues were discussed. The travelling lunch was a real success with 46 tickets being sold. £577.23 was taken, including £109 for the raffle. It was decided to incorporate a barbecue in the next one; perhaps in June on a Saturday evening.

The Rudston Bake Off on November 28th was discussed. The oven needs to be mended before this event. A Henry hoover will be purchased. Bernard has almost finished making the new notice board. It is possible that we may have a Yorkshire dialect evening, with a speaker, perhaps in February. The next meeting will be the AGM and was fixed for April 19th.

Gardening Corner

Here we are again, another year to look forward to. Each Christmas I am reminded of one or two special jobs that I helped with, when I was a very young garden boy. Flowers and a few flowering pot plants, for the church here at Rudston, all growing in the glass houses at Thorpe. The other job was the cutting of holly for decoration and for the shop in Bridlington. How the years fly by! Work outdoors meant winter digging and pruning of fruit trees also grape vines in the vinery.

Any planting is done if the weather is suitable, but there is always something to do in the glass house, cleaning thoroughly ready for the new year seed sowing etc. For those giant onions, now is the time to sow in a little heat. I do like those giant bulbs, so mild and good in the kitchen.

This month, after apples and pears, it's the turn of plums. The variety that most folk know is "Victoria", very reliable and often heavy croppers. It does well in our thin chalky soil. There are about 400 varieties in the plum family, so no shortage to choose from. These days most growers plant plums that have been grafted or budded onto a dwarf root stock: so if you are going to plant, the root stock "Pixie" is the best.

All varieties including damsons are shallow rooting, compared with apples and pears, so use plenty of organic manure when preparing the soil. My choice of varieties include, Victoria, Marjorie's Seedling, Czar, Kirke's Blue and the transparent Gage. Merryweather is a large fruiting damson and is always worth a place in the orchard.

My last monthly notes are at an end but I do hope we have a successful 2016 in our gardens and hope to keep in good health for a long time. Best wishes to all our readers.

“YON LAD OUT THERE” BY Eileen Ward

We have a real author, living here in our village. Eileen Ward, who lives on Southside Lane in Rudston, has had a book published. “Yon Lad Out There”, which is based loosely on the life of her father, took Eileen 5 years to write.

It is a gritty story set in a small mining town in South Yorkshire and follows the early part of her father, Stanley’s life. He was born in 1919 and is determined not to follow the path marked out for him as a miner and sets out his ambition to become a farmer. It proves to be a difficult path, beset with adversity that he endeavours to overcome with humour and tenacity. Along the way he finds romance.

This is a really interesting story of a family struggling to cope with hardships of the time. The book is in bookshops and is on the Amazon reading list. Copies can also be purchased from Eileen...’phone 420706.

Eileen is no stranger to the publishing world having previously written some short stories in a magazine. She is also kept busy with 5 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

Sue

Thank you to all who attended our “Musical Allsorts “ evening. I have received a letter of thanks from the air ambulance for our donation. We made £220.

Crosslands Column

Spoke too soon! First the Fly Tippers struck again, this time leaving black bags of assorted household rubbish, and (surprisingly) one of garden rubbish, in front of the recycling containers. That means they were in full view, as well as causing difficulty for those visiting with bottles etc. The Paper container was still in place then, but both that and the Plastics have gone now. Thank you to those who continued to use them to the end. If the County Council take notice of such things, it will show that they will be missed by some people at least. Payments seem to be catching up again now, as figures for July to September have just been received, ironically showing two collections of paper against one of glass.

The other thing unwisely mentioned last month was crime. That was fortunately of a minor nature, but suffice to say that our PCSO had occasion to call at a house in the village. Let's hope I don't inadvertently invite trouble this month!

East Riding of Yorkshire Council's "Overview & Scrutiny Committee" are inviting the public as well as parish councils to suggest any topics for the Council, NHS, Police, or Fire & Rescue, to consider. As a guide, this year they have looked at: school buildings & funding, potholes, controlled parking, special expenses, council assets, drug use, maternity & cancer services, road safety, sheltered housing. This committee can produce recommendations and reports and offer advice, but stress that it is NOT a forum for complaints or planning application matters. Anyone with non-complaining suggestions can e-mail: scrutiny@eastriding.gov.uk or phone: 01482 393204. There is a deadline of 8th January, 2016.

That is not expected to be the subject of a separate agenda item at the meeting on 9th December, but of course if anyone has anything which they think might be better coming from the parish council, please contact any member before then.

There may then have been another meeting before the next newsletter, as that should be late January or early February.

As you will see from the separate notice, the parish council and its dog warden are prepared to get tough over the dog fouling matter. It seems amazing that despite numerous articles, both national and local, there are some people who just will not clean up after their dog. After a distressing case in front of the village hall in late October, we must assume that one or two of them live in the village. If they have a compelling reason for not complying, maybe they would explain to Mr. Shanks?

Another parish council member has taken up the local bus service issue. Please take the trouble to respond to the survey arranged by Mrs. Starkey if you do, or could, use local transport. This could have a bearing on the County Council's proposals for next year, as outlined in October. However, attention to this matter has also brought up news from Nafferton MiBus that no-one from Rudston has actually used the Tuesday "dial-a-ride" service since that was set up in early 2014. Indeed, their present co-ordinator denied any arrangement being in place at all, so that could be awkward if anyone fancies it now.

As always at this time of year, on behalf of the Parish Council: Best Wishes for Christmas and the New Year to all. (Including the anti-social types mentioned above, if they change their ways!)

"From the school"

We have had a busy term here at school since September. We have focussed on the Christian values of 'Generosity' and 'Compassion' in our assemblies and the children have tried to live out these values by noticing the needs of others and doing what they can to help.

Each year, our eldest children (Year 6) run a coffee and cake afternoon in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support – this year the event was very well attended and raised over £500. The children organised everything themselves, from advertising to serving the tea and cake.

Our Harvest Worship, held in October, was called 'Harvest Rock' and we tried to teach our children about those in need locally and globally. Thanks to generous donations from parents and friends of the school, we were able to send a super collection of food to Driffeld Foodbank, as well as raising over £120 for a cause in Malawi, Africa, to provide safe cooking facilities for a village. More recently, we have also enjoyed 'Children in Need' day and been learning about the need for mosquito nets in Nigeria.

Every year we take pride in being involved with Remembrance on Armistice Day in Kilham. Our Year 6 children attended the memorial at All Saints' Church and, as we do each year, we planted Remembrance crosses and poppies and laid a wreath in respect of those from the area who gave their lives.

As Headteacher, seeing the children pay their respects and conduct themselves in a sensitive, mature way on such occasions always makes me proud.

Thank you, as always, to everyone for your support of our work this term – the coffee afternoon, Church services and PTFA events all help to bring the wider school community together.

Congratulations to the Year 5 & 6 football team, who won the East Riding Small School's Football tournament in November at South Hunsley. The boys played incredibly well, scored lots of goals and have now got through to the next final, which takes place in Grimsby on November 20th. Well done boys! They might want to carry on wearing the new lucky red 'away' kit!

As I always seem to say at this time of year, rehearsals for Christmas plays and performances are already underway here at school! The run up to Christmas is a special time to be in school.. Below are diary dates for our Christmas events; tickets for performances will be available from the school office.

On behalf of everyone at school, I would like to take this opportunity to offer very best wishes to everyone involved with the school and village community.

Missing Word for November CHAIRPLANE

*I would like to thank Phillip Crossland for the following article.
I hope it brings back some memories!*

 Anniversaries *****

There seem to have been a large number of anniversaries this year, many of 50 years ago, and here are a few more.

Looking back now, 1965 could be described as a troubled time. Strikes and “go-slows” were common-place. A chap called Beeching had taken an axe to the railways, amid government enthusiasm for cars and motorways. America had a war in Vietnam, and the Cold War with Russia gave an uneasy feeling about a button being pressed by one of them, spelling the end of the world as we knew it.

So maybe it was light relief when we were told that a golden eagle, swiftly named “Goldie”, had escaped from London Zoo. Attempts at recapture were reported daily, and it took a week before the eagle was eventually lured back none the worse for its exploits. (Not sure about the local small bird population!)

Some of the strikes were interesting though. On the London Tube booking clerks called a one day strike and an “honesty box” was placed at stations with passengers invited to leave their normal fare. We don't know how successful that was, but at least the trains were running that time. A “go-slow” on the national network later in the year actually led to fisticuffs between drivers and passengers.

The B.B.C. were not immune, and to add to their troubles star presenter Richard Dimbleby let slip a swear word on “Panorama”. It would have begun with “B” of course - “F” would have had them closed down! He was quickly forgiven, having given his usual polished commentary for the funeral of Sir Winston Churchill in January. Sadly, he himself died of cancer just before Christmas that year.

In football, Stanley Matthews played his final first division game at the age of 50 in February. At the end of the year, Hull City had a record crowd of 40,000 at Boothferry Park for a Boxing Day match against Millwall. That was 27th December, the 26th having been a Sunday. Sundays were still “special” in those days, when there was little professional sport, and only some small shops open.

At least this was the golden age of popular music, even if we didn't realise it at the time. The Beatles were already being awarded M.B.E.s, causing disgust and the returning of medals from others. The Rolling Stones were living up to their “bad boy” image, and a magistrate called them “morons”. That was a new word to some of their more uneducated followers, who thought it would make a good name for a new group! (Which is what pop bands were called then).

The Royal Family had its own troublesome one. Princess Margaret's husband, Anthony Armstrong-Jones, rode a motor-bike, but there was disapproval in some quarters when she was photographed on the pillion. A princess in full leathers astride a motor bike? Tut-tut!

1965 saw the abolition of hanging. Contrary to speculation, or wishful thinking, the rope was not replaced by the guillotine or anything. A newspaper columnist did suggest that “aged and infirm” members of the House of Lords should be “put down” though!

America and Russia were also involved in a “space race” to reach the moon. There was endless speculation as to what they might find when they got there, with little green men being a favourite.

As Benny Hill sang: “What a world, what a place, ain't you glad you're a member of the human race”.
