Editor's Letter

Dear Everyone,

Hope you all enjoyed that brief little bit of summer which we had last week. Let's hope it returns soon. Apologies for the tardiness of this newsletter. Nick and I have been really busy.

It seems to be a regular occurrence, that people who have had connections to, or ancestors living in our village, write to ask if anyone can help them with information. Although I put their requests in the news letter, I rarely hear if anyone has contacted them. So I was delighted when Chris Gatenby forwarded a letter from The Rowlin Family with the fascinating account of their search for their family history. It is on pages 10 and 11. I hope you all enjoy reading it and many thanks to Chris.

I have published the Driffield and District Triples Evening Bowls League Division Two on page 6. I am told by members that they really need new players

I expect many of you are preparing for summer holidays. Have a wonderful time, returning rested and refreshed. For those who are not venturing from the village, there are many events to which we all look forward. There is the Rudston Yard Sale, the Village Show and the Thorpe Hall Family Fun Day, all the details of which can be found in this issue.

I hope that all those year 6 pupils are enjoying their last few weeks in primary school. Of course, I know from experience, that there is nothing else to be learnt there!! I'm sure that you are all looking forward to joining the secondary school. For those who are awaiting exam results, let us hope that all your dreams and aspirations come to fruition.

Have a brilliant summer everyone.

All Saints Church Social Committee

Our next event is on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday 14th, 15th, 16th August from 1pm until 5pm each day, entitled "WEDDING DAYS".

There will be a display of wedding dresses, bridesmaid dresses and Christening gowns, with associated memorabilia in church. Entry will be £2 each and tea, coffee and cake will be on sale. Please let Susan Ward know if you have anything you could contribute/loan for display. We hope people who were married in our Church will be interested to visit it for this event, as well as the general public. Please tell your family and friends about it.

There is a wedding in Church on August 12th at 3pm., so I hope the children in the village will continue the tradition of tying up the main gate with string or ribbon (& kindly come along with a pair of scissors) so that the groom can unfasten the gate after throwing coins over it, to distract the children who pick it up as pocket money.

June Sellers (Social Secretary to Rudston P.C.C.)

Village Hall Coffee Shop

The coffee shop is open on a Thursday morning

I would like to thank all the people who came for " A cuppa & cake " at the home of Hazel Conner. We were able to send a cheque for £252 to the Denman College Appeal which was an outstanding amount from such a small community .Thank you for your support and thanks to Hazel and the W I members for making it such a pleasant afternoon - with plenty of cake !

theWI
INSPIRING WOMEN

Our next meeting is an outing to The James Herriot museum at Thirsk . We are taking a 29 seater coach and will have some spare seats if anyone is interested in coming with us. The cost will be £20 in total including the coach and entry to the museum. There will be free time to have lunch at a place of your own choosing and time to look around the town. We will leave Rudston Village Hall at 9.30 a.m. and leave Thirsk at 3p.m. and be home about 5 p.m. Please contact June Sellers if you would like to come on 420237.

The September meeting will be on Tuesday 5th when Rick Hudston will talk to us about Danes Dyke House.

June Sellers ( President of Rudston W.I.)

Rudston Parish Council News

Anti-social behaviour... Report it!

The East Riding of Yorkshire Council and Humberside Police Force work closely to tackle Anti-social behaviour.

Anti-social behaviour is any aggressive, intimidating or destructive activity that damages or destroys another person's quality of life. Anti-social behaviour can have a serious impact on individuals and whole communities. It reduces feelings of safety and will not be tolerated.

At the East Riding of Yorkshire council, we have a team of officers dedicated to support and protect you and also take action against those who choose to make your life a misery. We firmly believe in early intervention in the East Riding rather than resorting to legal action. We have used early intervention tools successfully for a number of years and this will continue.

For advice and guidance on what you can do if you are suffering from anti-social behaviour or know others whose quality of life is being affected and are too frightened to do anything about it themselves, we encourage you to visit our website at www.eastriding.gov.uk. Our website provides information on anti-social behaviour, what is it, what and who to report an issue to.

If you would like to report anti-social behaviour to the council, you can contact the anti-social behaviour team, in strictest confidence by:

Other Useful Numbers:

If you need to talk to the police about a crime you should contact Humberside Police non-emergency on 101.

If it is an emergency or there is a crime in progress you should call 999.

To report a crime anonymously call crimestoppers on 0800555111

Volunteer Emergency Telephone System, or VETS.

VETS assists when a lone rescuer must stay with the patient and yet needs help in fetching the community defibrillator. By using a single memorable telephone number, this will ring up to 10 lines at the same time until a helper has been found.

VETS is a community run system, and enables up to 10 local resident volunteers to assist pending the arrival of the emergency services. The system can also be used for any emergency where additional help is required from neighbours, whether Cardiac Arrest or not. The availability of VETS gives a level of reassurance to the elderly, those living alone, and to the infirmed, that there is always help on hand.

The caller is played a simple message before VETS volunteers answer. If no answer, continue CPR until other help or ambulance arrives. VETS does not replace 999 calls.

Please also note that the volunteer number should be a land-line only – not a mobile number.

If you feel you are able to be on the VETS list please contact Jennifer Hobson – Clerk to the Parish Council on 01723 890084 or 07542874957, e-mail: clerk@rudston.org.uk

Annual Accounts

The annual accounts have been checked and verified by the Internal Auditor and are currently in the hands of the External Auditor. If anyone is interested in viewing the accounts these are available on the Parish Council website www.rudston.org.uk.

The next Parish Council Meeting is to be held on Wednesday 23rd August at 7.30pm in the village hall.

Jennifer Hobson, Clerk to Rudston Parish Council
(Please note that any opinions expressed in this column are not necessarily those of the Parish Council)

First & foremost, we would like to send our sincere thanks to the families of The Rudston All Saint's Church for their kindness and for welcoming us so graciously into their community. We greatly enjoyed our tour with Minister John Walker and found him to be highly informative on the vast history of Rudston. We would also like to offer our thanks to the community around East Yorkshire for their enjoyable company and for Wold B&B in Wold Newton for having us.

In the span of little over a week, we visited over a dozen graveyards, saw even more historical churches and sites, and spoke with many individuals regarding not only our history, but the history of the area. For us this was an eye-opening experience to finally be able to see the places where our family had lived. To quote Ralph Waldo Emerson, "...man is a bundle of relations, a knot of roots, whose flower and fruitage is the world..." As if an embodiment to this phrase, the Rowlin family returned to their "knot of roots" this June of 2017 and saw how their flower bloomed into the wonderful history we have the privilege to study today.

Thanks to the current research being conducted, we can now trace the family tree to Rudston in East Yorkshire as far back as the 1760's. In particular, Newyear Rowlin (#1, as there are so far two of them in our family history) was born and baptized in Rudston in 1761, but would later move to eastward to Bridlington where he would be an oat dealer, miller and baker, according to the White's Directory.

Newyear Rowlin #2, who would be born several years later in 1829 in Bridlington, would later farm in Rudston. According to the 1861 Census in UK, Rudston, Yorkshire, he would be farming 160 acre and it was located at 5 Church Hill lane.

While exploring Rudston, what I think surprised us the most was the lasting pieces of the Rowlin's in Rudston. To be specific, the Rowlin family had once owned the post office in Rudston in 1901. Baron Rowlin's profession was grocer and shopkeeper by trade, however his wife, Sarah, was a postmistress. This business was in fact in her name! Together they had a family of 6 children: Ruby Millicent, Lucy Ann, Beatrice Mary, Sydney, Fred. The location of the former post-office is now formerly used as a glass blowing institute.

Sydney Rowlin was a Sergeant of B Company, 2nd Battalion in The Prince of Wales's Own (West Yorkshire Regiment), 23 Brigade, 8th Division. He was killed in action at Bouchavesnes.

With all that we have learned during our stay, we feel that Rudston holds a very special place in the hearts' of our Rowlin history. We felt privileged to be able to stay and learn and thank everyone once again for their kindness.

This email has been sent to the Parish Council, so I am passing it onto all the residents of the village.

There has been a couple of incidents recently not just in our area but the surrounding areas too where number plates have been stolen from vehicles. These stolen number plates are usually put on other vehicles and used in criminal activities.

Please be vigilant and report anything suspicious on 101.

Many thanks

EAST RIDING
NEIGHBOURHOOD

The parish council have been asked if anyone is interested in forming a Neighbourhood Watch Team.

Many years ago there was a Neighbourhood Watch Team in the village, run by a group of very diligent members. If anyone is interested in reforming this group, please speak to any member of the Parish Council.

EAST RIDING NEIGHBOURHOOD

Neighbourhood Watch: East Riding of Yorkshire Council

The Role:

To be the main point of contact for Neighbourhood Watch on behalf of East Riding Council/Humberside Police and the residents.

To have Neighbourhood Watch and crime resilience as a regular item on your meeting agendas.

To receive and forward on any crime prevention alerts and crime resilience information from East Riding Council/Humberside Police to the residents.

To help East Riding Council/Humberside Police to encourage and empower residents to report crime and share anything they have reported to the Police with their neighbours and the Parish Council.

To help East Riding Council/Humberside Police to encourage residents to report and keep the police informed of any activity that they think is suspicious.

The Advantages:

Crime resilience information and crime updates from East Riding Council and Humberside Police.

Support to link in with crime prevention initiatives such as Immobilise registration.

Timely updates regarding current scams and crime alerts.

Notification of any relevant funding pots for home security items for your residents.

Direct contact with your Police Community Safety Officers (PCSO).

Free NHW street signs and window stickers to send out a clear visual message.

Links with other partners such as Trading Standards, Humberside Fire Service and Age UK.

Promotion of a sense of community well-being, with the Parish Council at the centre of crime reduction.

Free training in adult safeguarding, dementia awareness and Immobilize

If I said that in three days' time it would be a Thursday, I am sure that most of you would have no difficulty telling me that today was a Monday.

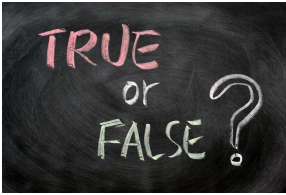

Try this one then. Yesterday was two days before Monday. What day is it today? Yes, you're right again. It's Sunday. Do you get the idea?

Now try this one.

Three days ago, yesterday was the day before Sunday. What day will it be tomorrow?

In the last newsletter it was interesting to see reference to the tradition of tying the churchyard gates at weddings, because I thought it had already lapsed. When present as one of the “background staff” at those events I usually unobtrusively use the back entrance so could be wrong, but please join me in the ever-entertaining game of “then and now”.

First a general observation that children seem now to be little interested in such diversions. Their chief interest is the social media to be found in the palm of their hand where a mobile phone or other electronic gizmo is seemingly permanently attached. Chasing coins may also have less appeal, so maybe a £5 note? These plastic fivers can be difficult to keep under control as it is! Patience is another requirement, which can be alien to youngsters. On warm summer days such as the 3rd June, the wedding party usually take their time in the churchyard.

Which brings us to photographs. Now that nearly everyone has the means of taking instant pictures everywhere they go, wedding photography gets more sophisticated and involved. No single person can undertake the task now – it’s a team, with multiple cameras, one of them on tripod for the traditional walk down the aisle shot. This must lead to an immense number of photos. A fair few of those will be discarded at some point, as there would be enough to fill half a dozen albums otherwise! Though maybe the video makes up for that. We shall draw a veil (sorry) over the ones who spend an eternity taking pictures of the bride alone before she even makes it into church.

So, after the service, having spent a half hour or so on the sunlit lawns at the front of Rudston All Saints posing for pictures surrounded by family and friends, our happy couple are eventually steered towards the gate and waiting transport. On finding the gates tied shut and laughing locals at the other side, let’s hope the bridegroom retains his sense of humour as he now has to pay to get out of the place!

As we have raised the subject, this gate-tying tradition will probably re-appear on 12th August. (The Glorious Twelfth for someone?). Regardless of that however, I'm sure the event in the days following as noted in the June newsletter will be well worth a visit. Come along and reminisce.

Historical footnote: It is probably little remembered now but there was a popular song titled "The Wedding" which was a hit in 1964. A foreign song, this English version sung by Julie Rogers surprisingly caused a little controversy because it features the words "Ave Maria" (Hail Mary). They of course are used by Roman Catholics - and she was a Protestant singer! (At least we don't go around killing people over our little differences)
