THE BOSVILLE ARMS

Editor's Letter

Dear Everyone,

Firstly, I would like to thank Reverend Barbara Hodgson for her moving account, in the Church News section, of her visit to Zimbabwe. It certainly makes one think.

Although the sunny days of August seem in the distant past, the Family Fun Day at Thorpe Hall, which was held on August 30th, in aid of The Yorkshire Air Ambulance Charity and All Saints Church, Rudston, was a resounding success, with £1156 being raised for YAA and £500 for the church. There was a myriad of exciting activities and the tug of war between the Bosville and the campsite was won by the campsite.

We can now reveal the details of the "Rudston Bake Off", which has been arranged by Theresa, assisted by the village hall committee. It is the intention to create an appealing and entertaining event in Rudston, in aid of village hall funds. We hope that there will be much interest from bakers and also spectators. All the details are on the opposite page of this edition.

As we look towards Remembrance Day, it seems appropriate that we have further news from "Rudston's Old Soldier". Also if anyone can tell me about a bomb which was dropped, in the village, during the war, I would be very interested to hear from them.

Sue Tompkin

I would like to thank everyone who helped and supported The Macmillan Coffee Morning. The sum of £353 was raised.

A word from Rev Barbara Hodgson (priest in our benefices) following her recent visit to a residential home for physically disabled children in Zimbabwe.

Dear Friends,

Those of you who know me will be aware that I am very rarely lost for words. However, there have been several times this has occurred since my visit to Zimbabwe.

Firstly, before I went I received generous gifts of money to take with me to use at my discretion. I was humbled & speechless by these acts of kindness. When I was over there, David and I visited a residential school for physically handicapped children and I was brought to tears at the conditions in which these children live. A Victorian workhouse came to mind, cockroaches in the bath and sinks, water tanks that leaked, electricity that was unreliable, drab walls, torn curtains, ceiling lights hanging off, do you wonder why I was speechless. To think that God's little ones were living in such conditions, distressed me so much. Money is painfully short, the children are a nuisance, they are not 'productive', so government money is next to nothing.

Thank God for the wonderful Headteacher, Margaret, and the chair of governors, Chris, both Christians and the dedicated staff, many of whom have not been paid for months. They do their very best in dire conditions to give these children some hope for the future.

After I returned to the UK I spent some time thinking how I could possibly help these children. I prayed and asked God to help me and I set myself a task to raise $1000 to send to my sister in law, Sue. She is the Chair of the Inner wheel in Harare, capital of Zimbabwe and has dedicated her year in office to refurbish at least one dormitory at the school.

Here comes another speechless episode. I spoke about my visit at the services in the benefice and also at the Joint Benefice service in September, I did not directly ask for money but it came, lots of it. The Craft & Chat group agreed to knit cushions for the children's beds to cheer up the dormitory and they are clicking away furiously. I am well past the $1000 I pledged, my prayer was more than answered, so thank you so very much for all the kind offers, not just of money but of prayer and encouragement. I promised my efforts would be for the year of Sue's office so upwards and onwards.

I don't mind at all these periods of speechlessness !!

With love & blessings,

Barbara

Crosslands Column

There was one of those annoying moments at the end of September. Two, actually! On the 30th, two separate items for possible inclusion in the newsletter came through by computer. Obviously, both were just too late for the October edition. The first, concerning Chimney Fires, was too long to include in full anyway, and a shortened version is included this month. The second was concerning advertising, and was left to the editor's discretion.

Regarding that first one, I had what I thought was a brain-wave and suggested it could go on the village website, only to be told "no-one looks at it!" Realising how little I look at such things myself, that is no doubt true, but it does show that these modern methods aren't always the speedy efficient way of communication you might expect. It also highlights the importance of this newsletter.

A collection of wind turbines is called a Wind Farm as we know, and apparently a number of solar panels is a "Solar Array". One of those was the subject of the latest planning application to come to the parish council's attention between meetings. The location though, is at the furthest point from the village of Rudston parish, Thwing Road, so would not have visual impact. The parish council have recommended approval of the plans.

There was a reminder of the extent of the parish in that direction when a letter with attached map arrived from East Riding of Yorkshire Council. This was concerned with arrangements for next year's elections. The national ones we are all painfully aware of already, but there could possibly be parish council ones (which would be costly) if there are more applications than places. Ours are strictly non-political of course – the "common sense" party wins every time!

There will be a report elsewhere about the new Corner Garden (as we can confidently call it now), but interest from the village on the 11th October seems to have been a little disappointing. However, on a nice day a little more undergrowth clearance was achieved. One of the site's feathered residents was very interested in proceedings, but I'm not sure he or she was being altogether complimentary. (A robin making full use of "twitter"!)

That is intended as a "community" garden of course, and from a new report we learn that it is a thriving public house in a village which makes for "greater community spirit and stronger businesses". It may be too late for the latter in Rudston, but the open Bosville Arms should help the former. Actually, village pubs are reckoned as more important to rural life than the parish church these days, and there must be a lot of people who don't attend either!

The next parish council meeting is to be December 3rd.

Phillip Crossland

(Please note that any opinions expressed in this column are not necessarily those of the Parish Council)

Rudston's Old Soldier

Fred Leary, was stationed in Rudston, as a young soldier before being sent to fight in France. He has already told us about his trip to France in June, to commemorate D Day in 1944, but has now written to tell us about yet another trip to France; this time in August this year. He and 4 other veterans were invited to St Aignan, which was the village liberated by Fred's regiment. 95 year old Fred was accompanied on this occasion by his wife, Phyllis, who is 92 years old.

Fred says that

"After what was the 70th anniversary year of liberation, perhaps it is time to move on and consign it to history." Fred goes on to say that "as long as he can stand, he will lay a wreath at his village memorial on Remembrance Day. " He thanks us for our interest, but we must thank Fred for sharing some very poignant memories.

The October meeting of Rudston WI met at 7pm in Rudston Village Hall, where 26 members and our guest, Mrs Heather Wynn from Nafferton WI, attended. Mrs. Jenny Herring welcomed everyone and the meeting this month was our Annual Meeting, with Heather being there to oversee the election of the new president. Jenny Herring was elected for another year.

President	Jenny Herring
Vice-president	Val Walker
Secretary	Sue Dawson
Treasurer	Joyce Peace
Programme Secretary	June Sellers
Internet Secretary	Melissa Raven
Luncheon secretary/ raffle	Gloria Traves
Committee members	Margaret Reed & Shirley Sutton

After the meeting we had a quiz, which Heather had brought; everyone joined in and it was fun.

On October 18th, 4 members attended the Autumn meeting of the East Riding Federation WI. The speaker in the morning was Dave Roberts, who spoke about the work of Humberside Rescue and in the afternoon, Stuart Hillard, who reached the semi finals of the "Great British Sewing Bee" spoke about the challenge of making trousers, jackets and blouses, when his main expertise is quilting. He brought along some lovely quilts, which he had done; his talk was interesting and humorous. The WI choir, Eastern Lights, of which June is a member, performed and we wish them luck in the competition, next month, which is to be held in Ilkley.

Our monthly luncheon club was well attended and 14 people had a lovely meal at Manor Court Carnaby.

If you are interested in joining our WI or you would like to come along as a visitor to one of our meetings, where you would be made most welcome, please contact Jenny Herring on 01262 420720.

The Corner Garden Update

Following the village consultation on Saturday 11 October and the Parish Council meeting the following Wednesday:

- The name is confirmed as The Corner Garden
- We will plan to provide a combination of benches and picnic tables in the lower area made from recycled plastic. The pictures below show some examples of what we might purchase, once we have applied for and received funding!
- We will also need to apply for funding to continue the path in the lower area up to the higher area and clear a way through the trees to the upper gate.

Thanks go to Trevor Smallwood, Bernard Warcup, Bob Overfield and Phillip Crossland for their clearing work on the Saturday, as well as Lyn Watson for the tea and biscuits!

Many thanks also to Angela Dawson for the donation of a red oak tree which is now planted next to the lower entrance. I am sure that it will be a feature for many, many years!

Neil Watson

Gardening Corner

Although we are moving towards the end of the year and nights are too dark for outdoor garden work, there is still lots of jobs to try to get done during the few weekend spaces. Soil cultivation on vacant plots was always, the spade...a good cover of manure then dig well in. Machinery seems to have taken over especially on the lighter soils of the East Riding.

Now is the time to plant tulips and any other spring flowering bulbs, also from now until the end of the year, plant all deciduous trees and shrubs. So what about starting an orchard of top fruits, that have been propagated onto dwarfing rootstocks.. I mentioned apple stocks in the October issue, pears for a small tree on Quince C stock and plum varieties on Pixy stock. There are hundreds of varieties of top fruits. When I worked at RHS Wisley, Surrey, on the National Fruit Trials, more than 300 apple and 200 plum and pear varieties on the sandy soil.

For our chalky land I would personally plant dessert apples. For early variety “Discovery” then to follow “Ellison’s Orange”, then later “Laxton’s Superb” and instead of the world famous “Cox” plant the Yorkshire variety “Ribston Pippin”.

For culinary use the “Early Victoria” is good for early apple pies. “Lord Derby” is a reliable later keeper. Then we must have the... apple “Bramley Seedling”. This does well in Yorkshire even though it came from the Isle of Wight . “Howgate Wonder” what an apple!! For late eating and cooking the dual purpose “Blenheim Orange” is well worth planting.

For pears, plant the famous “Williams” the “Louise Bonne of Jersey” and the queen of all pears “Doyenne du Comice”. A new variety that I have never grown is “Concorde”, better than the long “Conference”.

Now onto plums. “Victoria” still reigns top, but “Coe’s Golden Drop” is a good gage type for Rudston.

New hybrid fruits are now on sale for planting, “Cot’n Candy” is 3/4 apricot 1/4 plum. Another “Flavour Supreme” is genetically 3/4 plum 1/4 apricot. I have yet to see these but they sound interesting!

Do remember to stake newly planted trees, strong winds do effect the roots until they are well established. I must remember to plant out my few Wallflowers.

PS. My famous 3 r’s- Roses, Raspberries and Rhubarb all best planted in November.

Risk of Chimney Fires

On 30th September (too late for the last newsletter) East Riding of Yorkshire Council issued a three-page document on “Reducing the risk of chimney fires”. There was a “Chimney Fire Safety Week” at the same time, and they requested that the matter should be brought to the attention of residents.

There was advice on cause, prevention, and responsibilities for maintenance, including where homes are rented. More on that can be obtained on websites: www.nacs.org.uk or www.instituteofchimneysweeps.com, but below are the main guidelines from Humberside Fire & Rescue Service.

Ensure your chimney is swept regularly.

Chimneys should be swept according to the type of fuel used:

Smokeless fuels – at least once a year

Bituminous coal - at least twice a year

Wood - quarterly when in use

Oil - once a year

Gas - once a year (by a Gas Safe registered engineer)

Keep chimneys and flues clean and well maintained

When using open fires always use a fire guard, and make sure the fire is extinguished before going to bed or leaving the house

Ensure good quality fuel is used

Never interrupt the air supply by blocking air vents or air bricks

Finally, if you are unfortunate enough to suffer a chimney fire, then the chimney must be inspected thoroughly by a Certified Sweep BEFORE IT IS USED AGAIN.
