Editor's Letter

Dear Everyone,

Well how are you all doing in these difficult times. My last editorial was somewhat negative and frankly full of moans about the position the whole world is in at the moment.

I won't be moaning anymore, as we have had a nasty "wake up" call. Nick has been extremely ill and had to go to hospital last Wednesday, with an infection. Thankfully, it wasn't covid, and he came out the following day, after having numerous tests and ultra sound scans. It is going to take him quite a long time to recover, so I won't be doing any more moaning; just being thankful that we are safe!!

It is for the situation just outlined that the newsletter may be late this month.

I wonder how many residents managed to get to the Rural Police Surgery on the afternoon of October 19th. It was advertised in last months newsletter. There was a PCSO and a community Safety Advocate from the Fire and Rescue Service. They were there to answer any questions which people may have. If anyone needs to speak to the PCSO for our village his email is:

Steven.sharp@humberside.pnn.police.uk

There is an online survey which you can complete, if you have anything to say. This is at www.mycommunityalert.co.uk/humbertalking

There are some leaflets from the fire and rescue service in the box which contains the brown bin bags at the front of our house.

There was a good idea from Megan on the Rudston Facebook . She suggests that we all stand on the doorstep on Christmas Eve at 6pm and ring bells to help Santa fly that sleigh. The children would love it. Hope Santa is not in lockdown.....but then he's magic isn't he ??

Thanks to all those who have sent articles and to all those people who deliver this newsletter. Thanks also to Shirley Harland who proof reads this.

As we are a bit short of news, I have enclosed another story which I wrote for my younger grandchildren, during the last lockdown.

I hope the children have had a good half term and keep well and safe everyone.

Services for November

Owing to the current lockdown no services in Church are permitted. We'll continue to have Zoom services..... and the church will be open for individual prayer.

Every Wednesday at 10am and every Sunday at 11am we will have a service on Zoom. Please contact Glyn if you want further details and the Zoom links
Dear Friends,

Just when you thought it was safe to go out! As we are all aware things continue to get worse on the coronavirus front: Since the last Rudston news we've had have further government guidance and the introduction of the three-tier system of Covid risk areas.

If you are wondering how that applies to church, I understand that in all tiers Places of Worship can remain open and public worship can continue. However, in tiers 2 and 3 (high and very high risk areas) the 'rule of six' does not apply. In these areas individuals, households and support bubbles can attend worship but must not mingle with others and physical distancing should be maintained.

There is information on almost every conceivable church matter on the Church of England website:

<https://www.churchofengland.org/more/media-centre/coronavirus-covid-19-guidance-churches>

If you need up to date local information (on what's happening in our church at Rudston, or any other church) please check out:

A Church Near You: <https://www.achurchnearyou.com/>

Every blessing and prayers for all those affected by coronavirus
Glyn

*Keep us, good Lord,
under the shadow of your mercy.
Sustain and support the anxious,
be with those who care for the sick,
and lift up all who are brought low;
that we may find comfort
knowing that nothing can separate us from your love in Christ Jesus our Lord.*

Amen.

The October newsletters were delivered on Wednesday 7th October and members were asked to do a secret paper vote for the President and Committee members. The outcome will be announced to members when the November W.I. federation newsletter is delivered on or around 3rd November.. I hope all members will take a good look at the national W I magazine - WI Life - as it contains lots of information and keeps us in touch with what is going on Nationally. There is also information about past and future resolutions and news from other counties..

We have no meetings planned for the foreseeable future but there are Zoom craft classes available. Keep safe and keep in touch with fellow members and those around you. A friendly phone call can mean a lot of difference to many people, especially if they live alone. June Sellers (Rudston W.I. Secretary) 01262 420237

As expected there is no Indoor Bowls for the time being. Even if the Village Hall had been available current Covid rules make it impossible. Those rules may be ever-changing but would likely be tightened rather than relaxed.

We did manage to hold a modest meeting in October. Unusually it was an afternoon in the sports pavilion. The club's constitution states that an AGM should take place during this month every year. Though naturally no-one thought of such things as national restrictions when that was compiled many years ago. The annual luncheon has also been cancelled, but engraving of club trophies had taken place as usual, and as many as possible were presented at the end of the meeting.

As some may have noticed the bowling green is now fully enclosed. The remaining three sides now also have a more solid wooden fence. A Lissett Wind Farm grant covered much of the cost, but naturally after a season of little income the club's finances have taken a hit. More expense is expected over the winter. Consequently the decision was taken (spoiler alert to other members) to increase subscriptions next year. This will be the first increase for many years.

The Driffield League are looking forward to a normal season resuming next year, with entries already invited for their individual competitions. Those were all cancelled this year obviously, but no-one from Rudston had entered any.

With a long hard winter in sight we reach out to such straws of optimism as we hope and pray for an end to this nightmare.

The First Match of the Season

Toby woke up with a feeling of butterflies in his tummy, knowing that today was a very special day. It was the first match of the season and very important to Toby.

He threw the covers off the bed and ran to look out of the window. Perfect weather; just right for playing football.

His new kit was laid out and Toby enthusiastically pulled on the shirt. Five minutes later, he was staring rather crossly in the mirror as he inspected the globule of toothpaste which had slopped onto his new top. "Why didn't he brush his teeth before putting on the shirt?" He was always being told to do that. "Everyone will know what it is and the kids will laugh at it" he thought, as he rubbed ineffectually at the stain, which was growing bigger.

Toby descended the stairs, rather forlornly, as he had so been looking forward to his big day.

The shirt was quickly and efficiently removed and whilst he tried to eat some breakfast the stain, was magically wiped away. He really was too nervous to eat and before he could think about the forth coming game, he was in the car on the way to the football club.

He didn't feel like talking and thought through everything which he had been taught. He was really excited, but at the same time felt very nervous.

As he climbed out of the car, he glanced around at the hordes of children and hoped that he wouldn't let anyone down. All the teams were doing their exercises, led by various trainers, one of whom approached him, holding out a friendly hand.

"You must be Toby, our new referee. Pleased to meet you"
"Do join us for a pint in the club house after the matches."

Toby was so glad that he had taken the decision to train to be a referee, even though he had felt that at his age perhaps it was time to "hang his boots up".

Yes definitely the right decision. Sue
