Editor's Letter

Dear Everyone,

Welcome to any newcomers to the village. I hope that you will enjoy taking part in the many activities which will be happening in our village. The Rudston Village Show was a huge success and thanks to Teresa for organising it. We look forward to another evening of "Musical Allsorts" this month and thanks to Kate who organises that one.

We are fortunate to have so many volunteers in our village. Thank you to all the people who send articles to the newsletter. Special thanks to Shirley, the treasurer. The accounts for the year can be seen on page 12, and last but not least, the people who print and distribute each publication.

It is pleasing to see that the pavilion has had a "make over", with new uPVC double glazed units now in place. (See front cover and Jane's report on page 5).

Kilham C of E Primary School has had good start to the new academic year, with a new awards system in place. It sounds very exciting and will encourage all pupils to show their "best selves".

Finally, I would like to welcome Jen Hobson, who is taking over as clerk to the parish council when Philip retires after many years. We have all enjoyed Crossland's Column and it will be sadly missed. Jen has written a letter of introduction on page 8.

Seating for the Corner Garden

We have also been informed that we were successful in a bid to the Caythorpe Gas Environmental Fund for a grant to provide seating and signage for the Corner Garden. This funding will be used to purchase signs for the lower and upper gates to the garden and three benches and one picnic table made from recycled plastic. We chose recycled plastic as that reduces maintenance and should provide a long life for the seating.

Hopefully the seating will be in place by the end of October.

Rudston Playing Field News

Thanks to grants from Lissett Community Wind Farm Fund and Caythorpe Environmental Fund together with money raised from the village bingo, work will be starting soon to replace the pavilion's old wooden doors and windows with uPVC double glazed units.

This will make the pavilion warmer, more secure and reduce the burden of maintenance. We are fortunate to have facilities for bowls, cricket, football and tennis as well as informal recreation in such a lovely setting in the village.

Thorpe Hall Family Fun Day, in aid of Yorkshire Air Ambulance.

This year again proved a great success (despite the rain!) with a great turn out supporting YAA. With more attractions and exhibits we hope this community event will continue to develop year on year. Special mention and thanks to all those who sponsored this event, volunteers and all those who braved the weather to join in the fun. We will soon be publishing a video of the event which will look great so keep an eye out on our Facebook page.

William Macdonald handed David Hebdon of YAA a cheque for £6,000 which was amazing, and a valuable contribution supporting this vital charity.

Thank you all again for supporting this day.

Many thanks.
Somerset.

Kilham Church of England Primary School

Welcome back to the new academic year here at school! We have been back for just over 3 weeks (at the time of writing), the weather has been gorgeous for the most part and our new school year has started really well!

We said goodbye to 16 children in July who were moving onto secondary school, and we have welcomed 21 new children into Reception and 4 other new-starters, as well as another new group of children into nursery. Our nursery is already full for this academic year and we have more children on roll than I can ever remember.

Everybody is getting used to new classrooms and new teachers and everyone is making new friends.

September service, on Friday 16th September – although we had to stay up at school due to heavy rain and we look forward to celebrating the harvest on Thursday 6th October at 2.00pm in Church, when we will give thanks for the harvest and aim to make contributions to the Driffield Food Bank and a global cause.

We have some changes in school this September, with a new awards system. Each week there are 2 VIP's chosen from each class – and those children get a special lunch on a Friday at the VIP table!

There are already several activities planned for this autumn term to look forward to:

Diary Dates

Friday 30th September 1.30pm Macmillan Coffee Afternoon and Family Achievement Assembly.

Thursday 6th October 2.00pm Harvest Service, All Saints Church, Kilham

Thursday 15th December 6.00pm Nativity Carol Service, All Saints' Church S England

Parish Council News

Hello everyone, I am Jennifer Hobson the new Clerk to Rudston Parish Council. This is a new role for me and whilst I'm sure I still have a lot to learn I would like to thank Philip Crossland for taking the time to teach me all that he has over the last few months in order to ensure a smooth hand over. I hope that he enjoys a long and happy retirement after his 24 years of service. I know I have some very big shoes to fill and will do my very best to do so.

My contact details are available on the Parish Council Website - rudston.org.uk

We have now taken delivery of the recycled plastic furniture for the Corner Garden which was delivered on 21st September, so hopefully it will be in place by the time you read this – or soon after!.

The audited accounts have now been returned and are available for viewing at the home of the chairman for anyone interested.

East Riding of Yorkshire Council would like everyone to be aware of an extensive “Childcare Survey for Parents” open until January 2017. Taking about 10 minutes to complete, all parents of children up to 14 years or any 15-18 year olds with a disability are urged to take part. There will be a monthly draw for a £10 voucher, and all those who enter will remain anonymous. Further information available on: 01482 396469 (Monday to Thursday 8.30am to 5pm., Fridays to 4.30pm)

The next Parish Council meeting is to take place on 12th October 2016 at 7.30pm

Letter to the Editor

We moved to Rudston 4 years ago, the Bosville Arms was closed and everybody we spoke to complained about the fact that the village no longer had a pub. There were even meetings about the viability of setting up a working fund to enable the village to buy the property.

Enter Andy Archer who invested a lot of time, effort and money into making the pub fit for use. He provided a free buffet to welcome people on the opening night and over the past two years has organised Halloween evenings, Christmas parties, New Years Eve parties, provided live music, fireworks displays and even re-introduced Rudstock.

Andy tried to fit in with the village, sponsoring the News Letter on more than one occasion and volunteering to help mow the Churchyard.

What did Andy gain for all his hard work, time and money? The answer is “not a lot”. Apart from a hard core of about 20 people who used the pub on a regular basis, but unfortunately not all at the same time, the only time the pub was anywhere near full was when people could get something for nothing – free supper, free live music, free firework display

I don't think this village deserves a public house, and now we haven't got one, again. In short, apathy rules and the business has gone the way of all the other businesses that used to thrive in villages.

Phillip Crossland

On 30 September, Phillip will retire as Parish Clerk, a position he has held for 24 years. As the current Chairman, and I am sure I am speaking for previous Chairmen, I would like to formally thank Phillip for his work and counsel. During my time, he has provided good advice and always with a sense of humour. At times a sense of humour is the only way for a Parish Clerk to respond to some of the decisions and regulations made by bodies at County and National level. They seem to have little thought for how they affect a small village like Rudston, and they have not always made life easy for the Clerk.

I would also like to thank Phillip for the help and advice he has given to our new Parish Clerk during the handover period, and hope that he enjoys the free time he now has available!

Thank you once more, Phillip.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD SHOEBOX GIFTS

As I have left Rudston I will no longer be able to organise the shoe-box appeal.

Could you spare some time to take on this worthwhile task?

Each box makes such a difference to every child who receives one. It would be fantastic if someone from the village could continue to make this possible.

If you would like to help, please contact Samaritan's Purse on 0870 0112002

Many thanks,

Story

More Glory Holes

Not being much good at quizzes, it was no surprise that I couldn't think of a two-word term covering the three different definitions of question 7 in September's newsletter. However, I was amazed at the answer. "Glory hole" to me meant two different things altogether.

Deciding to do a little investigation of my own I soon found that the OED agreed with my main understanding. In their words: "untidy room, drawer, or receptacle". They also agreed with the quiz-setter's "quarry" meaning.

Turning to the computer, it should have been no surprise that the main meaning there was of a sexual nature, but really? Some of us have led sheltered lives! Moving swiftly on, the internet also came up with even more meanings, including the "glass-blowing" one, but the "dam/reservoir spillway" one remained elusive.

Nowhere however acknowledged my second meaning. If it existed beyond our family, it will now have fallen into disuse, because the glory hole was also the outside privy. At least, in the part of the West Riding now known as South Yorkshire. Although, any "hole" was often an 'oil! Anyway, the outbuildings to the cottage in which I spent my early childhood contained a two-hole privy. Seating for two or more was not too uncommon, but ours was one adult and one child-size, which I think was pretty unusual.

My grandfather, whose cottage it was, died when I was two years old. Obviously I didn't get chance to ask him much(!), but his working life was in a stone quarry, so he may well have known of a few different "glory holes" 100 years ago.
