Editor's Piece.

Hello and welcome to this month's Newsletter.

Just as we thought summer was over and all the sugary colours of summer were leaving us, along comes the falling brightly coloured leaves to brighten up our days again I just love autumn, apart from the leaf sweeping of course !!

Someone said to me after the Fun Day we had in Rudston, why is it we don't see any new faces at these events, always it seems the usual people turn up. ! So come on all you newcomers or people who say " nothing happens much in this village ", why not join in and meet your neighbours and fellow villagers, show some community spirit. !! We are lucky to have people here who give their time, ideas and efforts to make this village what it is. The least we can do is support them from time to time, and I for one appreciate very much what they do.

There will be a HARVEST SUPPER on the 7TH October in the Village Hall , try and come along and enjoy this event.

Have a happy October.

Cheers

RUDSTON YOUTH GROUP - Time for change.

Can you believe its 5 years since Rudston Group started ? It's been a huge success with a membership of over 70 children and young people aged between 8 and 16. We'd like to thank you for all your support over the years. As we all know nothing stands still and it was time to set up two groups, each with their own identity, one for aged 8 to 12 years (Rudston and District Junior Youth Club) and one for Seniors aged 13 to 21 which will retain the name Rudston Youth Group.

The main focus of the older group, which will start to meet every Tuesday 7 - 9pm from 2nd November, is Volunteering and Community Action. We'll tell you more in the next newsletter - in the meantime we need your help for our next community project CLEANING THE BECK !!! We will be down at the beck, in wellies and waders from 11am to 2pm on Saturday 9th October and need all hands on deck. If you want to come and join in, or make coffee for the volunteers, or loan us your brown bins, or take away some of the rubbish that would be brilliant. People who have a knowledge about conservation and waterways will be asked for advice as we don't want to disturb any of the wildlife or special plants living there. Looking forward to seeing you there For more information ask Fiona Turner, Sarah Binns or Trisha Owen.

Rudston Tennis Club News

Here are the results for each team entered in the Drifffield leagues in the 2008 season:

Men's A team – finished mid table in Division 3

Men's B team finished 6th in Division 6

Mixed team finished mid table in Division 6

The Scarborough League team finished 2nd in Division 2.

This year we had a grant from Humberside Police to run a free junior coaching course the first week of the school summer holidays. Carl Hazel led the sessions that were enjoyed by over 20 young people. We hope to run sessions again next year.

We are trying to keep a club session going again on Sunday mornings throughout the winter– if you are interested in playing please come along, everyone is welcome. If you want to be sure there will be at least 4 people there please ring Peter Crossley on 420462 or Brian Robson on 674965.

Disappointingly there are still incidents of the tennis courts being used for activities for which they are not designed. This will/ has caused damage to the playing surface. If anyone sees the courts being used for anything other than tennis, please ask the people involved to play elsewhere on the field. Resurfacing of the courts is very expensive and we keep membership fees low to enable everyone access, so do not have the funds to repair unnecessary damage.

If there are any new people to the village who would like to join the tennis club please contact Jane Crossley on 01262 420462.

RUDSTON VILLAGE HALL - Annual Fun Day

Many thanks to all the people who supported the Annual Fun Day, we hope you all had an enjoyable day, everyone appeared to be having a good time.

The birds of prey display seemed to be very popular, it was a shame the weather was not a little better, then the birds would have been able to give a longer demonstration (better luck next time)

THURSDAY COFFEE SHOP

We are sometimes struggling to get enough people to run the Coffee Shop and are appealing for anyone who may be able to take a turn, it need not be every month just occasionally would be a big help. If you are not able to give your time we would appreciate help with the baking, maybe cake or pastries etc. If you feel you are able to help in any way please contact Doreen Turner 01262 420668 or Shirley Clark 01262 420225 any help however small would be greatly appreciated.

Rudston Playing Field News. New secretary/ treasurer needed

Whilst the playing field is being used and enjoyed by more people, whether in organised sport or recreationally, it was very disappointing that the turnout for the AGM was lower than in previous years. Richard Warters resigned from the post of secretary after many years of stalwart service. The committee is therefore seeking a volunteer for either the secretary or treasurer's role please contact Peter Crossley on 420462 if you are interested or would like to know more about what is involved. The treasurer's role in particular is not onerous and no special knowledge or experience is needed. The committee is made up of the following representatives:

Tennis Club : J. Crossley, M. Sellers.

Cricket Club: S. Harrison(Chairman), B. Corner.

Bowls Club: R.Warters, P.Warters

Youth Club: no nominations

Parish Council: N.Watson, P.Woods Village Representatives:
Peter Crossley (acting secretary and treasurer), A. Moore, R Overfield

As you will be aware from the previous newsletter, the bingo was awarded to the Youth Club for the coming year.

Funding for a new ride on mower has been secured from Grassroots grants which will make cutting of the field easier thanks go to Brain for all the time and effort he puts in cutting not only the cricket square but the field as a whole.

Nature News

Over the past month there has been a noticeable movement of both summer visiting birds departing to warmer climes and an influx of birds from further north passing through on their way south. There are still a few swallows left and even a late swift has been recorded, but a brambling was recorded on the first weekend in September and there has been a noticeable influx of magpies and a hen harrier visited early in the month. Our resident birds however have decided it is not yet the end of the breeding season with a late brood of pheasants, only a couple of days old, being seen recently. A barn owl nest with four young, almost fledged, an exceptional success rate for this species, has recently been found locally. However a fully mature barn owl was found dead with only signs of starvation and no obvious injuries, but there is no indication that this was one of the parents of the brood. There have also been visits from a red kite and a kingfisher and two young buzzards, which appear to have been bred locally, unusually seven buzzards, have been seen together but there is no indication that the two young were part of this gathering. Sparrow hawks have also been reported regularly from local gardens feeding on both the visitors to bird feeders and juvenile water hens and for the first time recently two jays have been seen.

Toads are still finding their way to winter quarters and there have been a number of reports of both stoats and weasels crossing roads. Hedgehogs, both dead as road casualties, and alive in gardens have been regularly seen over the last month. This is the time of year when toadstools start appearing in numbers and after a few showers to encourage them ink caps have made a significant appearance.

There has been a late appearance of a number of butterflies including painted ladies, which are immigrants, comma and speckled wood both of which seem to have increased in numbers locally and a late appearance of a brimstone. The most common species however has been the red admiral, supposedly an immigrant only, but with increasing evidence of being a resident. Numbers of moths have been substantial and the late summer species including red underwing, sallow and bulrush wainscot have been recorded in good numbers, but noteworthy migrants have been confined to individual specimens of the gem and great brocade

Advance Notice: On November 21st there will be a Confirmation service at All Saints, Kilham. In a nutshell Confirmation is literally 'confirming' the baptismal vows made on our behalf when younger. It marks a step in our lives where we deepen our faith. After Confirmation a Christian is able to eat the bread and wine at Holy Communion rather than receive a blessing. Anyone thinking about Confirmation please get in touch to discuss it (telephone 420313). A course of four Confirmation classes will run Oct/Nov.

From the Vicarage

Harvest Festivals are well underway. After writing this I will prepare for my fourth Harvest Festival so far with even more to come. It's not a good time to watch the waist line. On one hand it can seem a bit gluttonous but on the other I know there is much more to Harvest than food glorious food. Eating together creates a bond: food, families and friendship are closely connected. It's especially important for Christians. If we look at the early church (which we read about in the New Testament of the Bible) we see it was renowned for it's fellowship. Spending time together made them of one heart and mind. There is a lesson for me there. Most of the time it's not at church I get to know people well its at a get together. Whether it's a simple cuppa or a fine meal that's the time we share about our lives and what matters to us. So I'm not going to feel guilty about eating together this Harvest, instead I will use the occasions to thank God for all his goodness and the blessing of those he puts around me.

Crosslands Column

It was quite a sobering thought to be reminded, as in the last newsletter, that Rudston is no longer only for Rudston people. Some of our local issues are inevitably trivial, but lets hope we can be of internationally with others. (I wonder if New Zealand has dog fouling problems ?)

Not that I have anything much “ local “ to report from the parish council this month anyway. There has been a noticeable reduction in paper correspondence lately, which I expect means that more is being transmitted electronically. However, after a “ sensible size “ poster was received, I was able to advertise the start of a new dance term in Bridlington before it actually began ! If any local young people have signed up this time, would you like to give us a report in the newsletter ? I expect people might like to know the difference to these dance shows you see on television. (Not that I do, but I’m given to understand I am in the minority)

Come to think of it - if I can bore you with personal reminiscences - I could probably have benefited from dance classes in my day, but when I was about 10 years old my primary teacher reckoned that I (among others) was neither a dancer nor a singer. We non singers were termed “grunTERS”, but whether its singing or grunting, I can still enjoy making a noise to this day.

Following closure of many village post offices, a number of other villages are served by a weekly “outreach” facility like Rudston. Some make a feature in the same way by serving refreshments etc., but apparently there is a general lack of advertising in places where this service is available. Please note that Rudston’s continues in the village hall every Thursday 10am to 12 noon.

Parents of school children may be ahead of me on this one, but I see that East Riding of Yorkshire Council are suggesting to “scoot” besides walking or cycling, as alternative to the car. Not quite out of the question for Rudston either, because the suggestion is to pack the scooter in the car (along with the child!) and drop them 10 minutes walk from school. In the case of Boynton, that would make it about the top of Boynton Hill. A youngster reading this would probably find that quite appealing but I am not recommending it ! Stick to the bus where possible.

At the time of writing, the parish council meeting on 6th October looks like being a fairly routine one. After that, the next will probably be early December - date next time.

Phillip Crossland.
